

What's the Perfect Mother's Day Gift? Candy, flowers, a trip to Hawaii, etc?

Here's a sure surprise winner with a composite video of my eleven grandchildren. What's the perfect mother's day gift? Candy, flowers, a trip to Hawaii etc. en all singing a sacred song with special words of praise entitled: "I Will Be What I Believe." It was presented to my wife during a weekly family Mother's day video conferencing session as a complete surprise to Roslyn who taught the grandchildren this song over the Internet as part of our Church Primary program this previous year during the COVID 19 pandemic. To her, this composite video is one of the "Seven Wonders of the World!"

Even though my children live in California, Utah and other cities in Colorado more than 150 miles apart, they were able to record the vocal renditions separately and my son, Dallin, creatively stretched them all together into a video presentation of the highest expectations. The video has one scene overlooking the beautiful Bountiful, Utah Temple which was made from a mountain top overlooking it and it was photographed via a drone! And the grandchildren had to climb that mountain in their Sunday clothes. It was windy and remarkable that they could even record the voices so clearly outdoors. Enjoy this moment of much happiness with the creativity of technology with gratitude for establishing eternal temple and family memories even through the COVID 19 pandemic when there were no Primary instructions in our Church during the height of the COVID 19 Pandemic in March 2020.

Here's the historic video clip for your appreciation for the gratitude that my children and grandchildren have for my wife, their mother and their grandmothers at <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=wZifvITufRQ>.
