Sometime genealogy can be classified for those of us who are aging. However, "Genealogy is the second most popular hobby in the U.S. after gardening, according to ABC News. Don't underestimate the youth in your families. In the Youth menu of The Family History Guide there is a page dedicated to fun and useful family history apps at <https://www.thefhguide.com/youth-apps.html>. These include links to learning the FamilySearch, Ancestry, and MyHeritage apps, as well as using apps from the BYU Family History Technology Lab (Geneopardy, Wheel of Family Fortune, Pedigree Pie, etc.) and the FamilySearch Solutions Gallery (JoyFlips, Traditions of the Ancestors, Puzzilla, etc.) (See all tips at <https://thefhguide.com/tip-of-the-day.html>.)

The family is the core unit of our Church. Getting the youth involved with their family heritage is essentially important for the well being of the entire family structure. Family photos are keepsakes that need saving. Make photos digital, share your photos, archive and back up photos, preserve family albums. For example, this URL illustrates the need for preserving family photos at:

<https://www.pinterest.com/familytreecom/ancestral-photos/>. FamilyTree.com is a free genealogy, ancestry, and #familytree research website. They offer reviews, articles, surname research, and genealogy advice at <https://www.pinterest.com/familytreecom/>. Never underestimate the creativity of youth with technology. What they can do with smartphones is incredible as is evident about what our missionaries accomplish.
